Homework 5: Spirited Arts

Every year, we run a competition called Spirited Arts which allows you the opportunity to produce a piece of art inspired by some of the themes in your RE lessons. You will have a couple of opportunities to enter this competition this year and at the end of the year, the 10 best entries will be sent off to a National Competition.

The first theme to produce a piece of art on is called Searching for God. It is about what God is like. There is some additional information to read in the support slides on teams.

Task one

Have a look at this example from a previous competition. How does this piece of work cover the theme “Searching for God”?

Task two

What is your piece of art going to look like? Write three bullet points below to describe what your piece of artwork is going to be like.

Homework 6: Spirited Arts

This homework is time to produce your piece of artwork inspired by the theme “Searching for God”. Your piece of art can be any medium. It could be a drawing, painting, model or piece of writing.

Produce your piece of work on a separate piece of paper. You can also use a canvas if you choose or make something.

Next lesson, your teacher will look at your piece of art and choose some of the best to keep for a final judging at the end of the year. MAKE SURE THE PIECE OF WORK IS CLEARLY LABELLED WITH YOUR NAME.

Underneath write a paragraph explaining what your piece of art means.

What did my teacher say about my artwork?	Teacher assessed
