

Key Stage 3 Religious Studies

Introduction

The overarching aim for Religious Education at Key Stage 3 is to develop the pupils' knowledge and understanding of the main religions and worldviews that form part of contemporary society. This is facilitated through discussion, literacy based tasks, regular level assessments, grouped and paired work, and guided independent research. All Key Stage 3 pupils have one single lesson of Religious Education each week in which they study the following units:

Year 7

Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does it mean to be Jewish today? • What does it mean to be Christian today? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does it mean to be Christian today? • What does it mean to be Muslim today? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does it mean to be Muslim today? • Spirited Arts national competition • What does it mean to be a Humanist today?

Year 8

Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does it mean to be Hindu today? • What does it mean to be Sikh today? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does it mean to be Sikh today? • What does it mean to be Buddhist today? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does it mean to be Buddhist today? • Non-religious worldviews.

Year 9

Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Problem of Evil – An in depth study of the Problem of Evil and religious responses to it. • A study of religious issues surrounding the Holocaust. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Morality and Ethics - Pupils explore ideas of belief and morality, how they shape lives and respond to a variety of ethical issues. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exams and beginning the GCSE course.

The Heathland
School
A Mathematics and Science College

